Believe not each accusing tongue,
As most weak persons do;
But still believe that story wrong,
Which ought not to be true.

Carrying victory with them, the nine golfers of the Florida Country Club, Jacksonville, returned home yesterday and today. The final score of the match game, played yesterday on the links of the Ocala Country Club between the visitors and a team from the local club, was 18 to 30 in favor of Jacksonville.

The visitors were a bunch of fine fellows and it gave the Ocala team, though defeated, great pleasure to be their host. They were loud in their praise of the attractive club house, the splendid links and our pretty little city.

In relating her experiences and impressions during a tour through the southern states, Dr. Anna Shaw, who spent a large part of the winter in Florida, expressed her belief that the South will extend the ballot to its women. New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and New Jersey women are now asking that they be given the ballot this fall.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Ayer have given up the house on S. Second street, which they have occupied for a year and a half, and will be with Mrs. Ayer's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Maughis until their new bungalow is ready for occupancy. Mrs.

Ayer and infant expect to leave the hospital Monday.

Eastern Star Entertainment

The very pleasant little entertainment given by the members of the Eastern Star at their hall last night was well attended and productive of great pleasure to all present. The actresses in the playlet carried out their parts without a single bobble, and their dialogues and the climax caused the most intense amusement to their hearers.

The plot hinged on a certain small local event, which was discussed by the good ladies of the community till from a molehill it grew to a mountain, only to disintegrate when all the parties came together and compared notes.

The cast in this clever little piece were as follows:

Mrs. Briggs.....Mrs. L. E. Yonce
Mrs. Green.....Mrs. H. A. Wesson
Mrs. Bean.....Mrs. C. E. Simmons
Mrs. Rice.....Miss Mae Stein
Mrs. Doolittle.....Mrs. R. R. Carroll
Mrs. Snow.....Mrs. B. C. Webb
Mrs. Taylor.....Miss Eleanor Tremere
Mrs. White.....Mrs. H. A. Kramer

Messrs. Jake Brown, C. E. Simmons and one or two other Masonic brethren, who are also sisters of the Eastern Star, acted as scene shifters, stove lifters, ushers and other useful articles.

At the conclusion of the play, refreshment to the ear was served in the shape of a piano solo by Mrs. B. F. Condon, and then all the ladies of the chapter present passed around ice cream and cake. Refreshments disposed of, the scholars present were lined up for a spelling bee, with Mr. C. E. Connor as schoolmaster. This was another great source of fun. Mrs. Baxter Carn won the first prize and Mrs. C. E. Simmons the consolation.

Quite a neat little sum resulted from the entertainment. The committee in charge, Mrs. H. A. Kramer, Mrs. L. E. Yonce and Mr. Jake Brown are entitled to much praise for their good work, in which they were most heartily supported by the other members of the chapter.

Auction Club Entertained by Miss Bittinger

The weekly meeting of the young ladies' auction club was held this afternoon with Miss Adele Bittinger, the ten members present, with ten other friends of the hostess, forming five tables of players to enjoy the four progressions at the home of the hostess on South Fourth street.

Following the interesting games, a salad course with ice tea was served and while the toothsome refreshments were being relished, the pretty prizes, a bag to hold crochet thread and lingerie sachets were awarded to the holders of the highest totals.

Enjoying the afternoon with Miss Bittinger were Misses Gertie Peyser, Ethel Crosby, Ellen Clarkson, Helen Brown, Hester and Marion Dewey, Beatrice Welbecke, Nellie Gottlieb, Alice Bullock, Virginia Sistrunk, Minnie Stovall, Hope Robinson, Eugenia Fuller, Bettie Melver, Mary Burford, Annie Atkinson, Mrs. Etta Robinson, Mrs. Herbert Lattner, Mrs. James Taylor and Mrs. J. H. Walters.

Mrs. Knudsen Honoree

Honoring Mrs. S. C. Knudsen of Lakeland, who is the charming guest for a few days of Mrs. Edward Holder, Mrs. J. C. B. Koonce entertained informally this afternoon at auction and rook.

A profusion of sweet peas and other pretty flowers of the season adorned the large reception hall and living room, where the tables were arranged for the games. Mrs. Koonce's parties are always numbered among the loveliest given and her courtesy this afternoon to the visitor of a popular Ocala matron was no exception to the rule.

As a memento of the pleasant occasion, Mrs. Knudsen was presented an attractive bon-bon dish, and a similar gift was awarded for top score. In entertaining her guests Mrs. Koonce was assisted by her mother, Mrs. F. H. Howse and sister, Mrs. M. H. Stovall.

At the conclusion of the games refreshments were served consisting of chicken salad, tomato and asparagus, olives, wafers, cream de ment, followed by coffee and angel food.

The auction guests were Mrs. Knudsen, Mrs. Holder, Mrs. F. E. Harris, Mrs. William Hocker, Mrs. R. L. Anderson, Mrs. C. L. Anderson, Mrs. B. A. Weathers, Mrs. J. K. Austin and playing rook were Mrs. R. A. Burford, Mrs. R. S. Hall, Mrs. Jack Camp and Mrs. James Hill. Mrs. C. R. Tydings joined the players late.

The New Baby is World's Wonder

Every baby makes life's perspective wider and brighter. And what ever there is to enhance its arrival and to ease and comfort the expectant mother should be given attention. Among the real helpful things is an external abdominal application known as "Mother's Friend." It is so well thought of by women that most drug stores throughout the United States carry "Mother's Friend" as one of their staple and reliable remedies. It is applied to the abdominal muscles to relieve the strain on ligaments and tendons.

In a little book are described more fully the many reasons why "Mother's Friend" has been a friend indeed to women for more than two generations. This book was prepared not only to aid the inexperienced but to enable so many women to have at hand the timely hints, suggestions and helps in concise and neatly printed form for ready reference. It should be in all homes. "Mother's Friend" may be had of almost any druggist but if you fail to find it write us direct and also write for book to Bradford Regulator Co., 303 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Georgia.
